

Documentary: Personal Reflections

What resonated with you from the three stories? Why?

What lessons about centering community voice did you take away?

What other reactions or reflections do you want to capture?

Cottage Grove Documentary: Small Group Debrief

What was important about this story for you? Why?

How have you experienced stories like this in your community or collaborative?

What is value of sharing stories like this with those working to transform community health?

